ideas are clean
they soar in the serene supernal.
you can take them out and look at them.
they fit in books,
they lead you down that narrow way and in the morning
they are there
ideas are straight.
but the world is round,
and a messy mortal is your friend.
walk together in the mud.

city staffed and slum hemmed school distracting
with mops and dirty children and the shadow of a non-student au
coping
with the kind of questions they don't ask
in a sociology class
to ground a book-lit mind in unheroic reality
of people
with their own ways
of saying
who and why

Some of us live in big white houses
Some of us live in small.
some of our names are written on blackboards some are written on walls.

Some of our daddies work in factories some of them stand in line.
some of our daddies buy us marbles some of them just buy wine.

But at night you can't tell Sunday suits from tattered overalls.
But then we're only children
children one and all.

Some of us take our lunch in boxes some in paper sacks.
Some of us kids join in the laughter some hear it at our backs.

Some of our mothers sew fine linens some can't sew a stitch.
Some of our mothers dress up poorly some of them dress up rich.

But at night you can't tell party dresses from hand-me-downs too small.
children one and all.

Some of us learn our lessons poorly some of us learn them well.
Some of us find an earthly heaven some of us live in hell.

Some of us go right on preaching without making too much sense.
Some of us hide behind a wall and some behind a fence.

But at night you can't tell picket fences from bricks and tower tall.
But then we're only children
children one and all. Rod McKuen memories not like faded letters that wouldn't make you glad you're moving on because its not the kind of place that begs for tears too proud to grab your sleeve impervious to ridicule just leaning

on the ugly side of beauty and knowing that you'll linger long enough to keep you from a swift and graceful exit

The right kind of education begins with the educator who must understand himself and be free from established patterns of thought, for what he is, that he imparts. If he has not been rightly educated, what can he teach except the same mechanical knowledge on which he himself has been brought up?

Jaffe—New York Decorating Co.

In a recent announcement, it was learned that the Student Association, late of the American University, quietly succumbed to a terminal disease of long standing. The Association, known by some as the undergraduate government of the American University, had undergone constant testing by several coroners before it was confirmed that the Association had died years before.

Much had been said about the function and purpose of the recently departed, but during this time of loss many have expressed surprise that it had lasted as long as it did. Condolences have trickled in from all over third floor Mary Graydon Center. Dennis Miller, Senior Executive of Uran Heap Assoc., Ltd, and executor of the Association's estate commented on the Association's timely passing. "It's a shame when anybody dies, but it is of some comfort to realize that when it closed its books the records were in the black."

The Student Association was survived by no one. It was thought that it would be best that way. Its assets are to be turned over to the Student Confederation. The Confederation, a distant cousin of the Student Association although it has denied it, hopes to continue the good works of its predecessor. Those handling the funeral arrangements have requested in lieu of flowers that twenty seven dollar donations would be appreciated.

none so rare or beautiful or commonly transfigured in the light of truth to stop the melting down to group or crowd
but sometimes you remember only one
for a loose and grimy
grip on life
a denominator not so common you want to sum it up and bring it home but its not the time it never is and only the fool would speak the final word

TALON 1972 is different, changed, new—but not unrecognizable.
You and AU are there . . . the only way you could be, in the ever-changing patterns and designs of a year on the Quad.
We have shown what we thought we saw and said what we only perhaps heard you say . . . but that's all we could do. It's yours now—no longer the property of the third floor of MGC. How else can you end a book that speaks for itself . . . except with a small and inadequate word to the staff
. . . thank you.
